CU*Answers Announces Compliance Website

Grand Rapids, Michigan –March 3rd, 2009

Audit Link, the compliance and auditing division of CU*Answers announces the roll-out of its new website, “The Advisor.” The Advisor is designed for the community of auditors and compliance officers in the credit union industry utilizing the CU*Answers flagship processing system, CU*BASE. The site’s focus is on disseminating information garnered through the day to day discussions between CU*Answers Compliance Specialists, and credit union professionals. In addition to focusing on tools within the CU*BASE system, there are other functions that will garner interest from any compliance officer, regardless of their related data processing system. Current features include a blogging function allowing the exchange of ideas and information about hot topics facing regulation in the industry, and quick “Compliance Links”

Jim Vilker, Audit Link’s Business Manager stated, “Since Audit Link went live in early 2008, our credit union partners have embraced this division, and began to create a very vibrant and collaborative community. We wanted to provide a forum to collect this sharing of ideas, and the Audit Link Advisor Website is the result.”
