eDOC Innovations Releases 6.0

MIDWAY, UT and GRAND RAPIDS, MI – May 6th, 2009

eDOC Innovations has announced the release of version 6.0 of its DocLogic product suite. The DocLogic suite is a comprehensive e-Document Strategy used by hundreds of credit unions nationwide. This comprehensive solution's design enables credit unions to "Go Green" in their operations, member services and new business development.

Bret Weekes, President/CEO of eDOC Innovations remarked, "In these unprecedented times, we believe we must continue to promote development and collaboration within our industry. I'm optimistic in eDOC's ability to bring solutions to credit unions that can promote collaboration and assist them in building their business."   This release introduces many enhancements in automation, audit reporting and increased security controls. "As credit unions continue to grow their own e-Document Strategy, it is ever more important that we as their peer address the concerns they have regarding compliance and security. We continue our commitment to our owners and peers to ensure the systems they utilize stay ahead of the compliance curve," continues Weekes.
