eDOC and Processing Alliance Collaborate on C21

MIDWAY, UT and MIDDLEBURY, VT – April 9th, 2010

eDOC Innovations, a CUSO and national leader in providing electronic document strategies, and Processing Alliance, a CUSO established to provide Check21 capture solutions to its credit union members, have agreed to distribute eDOC's CheckLogic platform to the Processing Alliance credit union peers.

"Processing Alliance was established during the early stages of Check21 support and has been successful in servicing its 41 credit union participants. They will now be able to extend the next generation of Check21 solutions to their credit union peers, integrating it into a complete eDocument strategy," comments Bret Weekes, President/CEO of eDOC Innovations. "It is a natural progression for servicing, when you consider the collaborative strength of leveraging a solution that offers a comprehensive imaging strategy that can address branch, merchant/remote deposit requirements with a full service document imaging system," he continues.

According to Weekes, the synergistic outlook of both CUSO's propels the innovation and collaboration of our credit union peers. Both eDOC and Processing Alliance strive to present a mobile, sustainable and secure mirror through which members view their credit union. By assisting credit unions in their internal processes eDOC helps them drive efficiencies in their operations and drive down costs per transaction, while generating new business opportunities.
