CU*Answers to Hold Collection Roundtable

Grand Rapids, Michigan – April 26th, 2010

CU*Answers recently announced on its website that it will host a 3rd Quarter Roundtable event focusing on credit union methods, best practices, and other intricacies focusing on member delinquencies.

The Collection Roundtable will be held at CU*Answers headquarters, April 29, 2010 from 9:30am to 12:00pm. The agenda states that it will consist of an open forum on collections laws, internal procedures, and CU*BASE processes. The invitation continues to state that this event provides a "perfect opportunity to ask questions, get answers, share opinions, and have your voices heard."

Jerry Collins, Operations Manager for the Collections department says "We've had really good success with this event in the past. In a time of economic turmoil, this free event provides the perfect opportunity for peers to gather, ask questions, and share opinions about certain key issues and challenges specific to credit union collection departments." He continues, "This is the third session in our quarterly roundtable series, and with each session we've witnessed attendance grow exponentially."
