CU*Answers to Repeat Record Setting Contest

Grand Rapids, MI – July 12th, 2010

CU*Answers, a provider of data processing and collaborative managed services for credit unions, has announced it will again sponsor an E-Statement Enrollment contest.

By enrolling in E-Statements using It's Me 247 online banking, members will be automatically entered to win a Nintendo™ Wii® game console by random drawing selection. According to the CUSO, last year's collaborative contest resulted in a record-breaking 9,000+ new E-Statement enrollments. This popular contest is affordable for credit unions, as the only cost is for printing of pre-designed marketing materials available for credit unions to purchase at discounted rates from combining orders of all participating credit unions.
