America's Christian CU Chooses 2020eDOC

MIDDLEBURY, VT and MIDWAY, UT – August 3rd, 2010

eDOC Innovations, a Vermont-based provider of electronic document solutions, has announced that America's Christian CU recently engaged the CUSO to provide an effective means to collaborate with other credit unions on its portfolio loan business. Based in Glendora, California, America's Christian, currently serving over 27,000 members with $250M in assets, chose to utilize eDOC's Member Document Portal, 2020eDOC, to allow other credit unions access to loan files to perform their auditing and due diligence, while keeping these same information secured from the rest of their web viewers and users.

2020eDOC is designed to allow access to participation loan documents through the document portal. "The innovation is really designed to provide a robust workflow and distributed business platform, where participation loans and the affiliate credit unions can all collaborate through a central system. Our eSignature solution that has recently be added will also bring some additional capability that will help our peers drive value and revenues," commented Bret Weekes, President/CEO of eDOC Innovations.
