NorthStar Enhances eDocument Strategy

MIDDLEBURY, VT and MIDWAY, UT – August 3rd, 2010
eDOC Innovations, a provider of eDocument solutions to credit unions, has announced that NorthStar Credit Union has partnered with the CUSO for electronic document management solutions.

According to the CUSO, the Warrenville, Illinois-based credit union chose to upgrade to eDOC's products for the benefits the credit union could provide to its members as a result. According to Byron Cluckey, Director of IT for the credit union, providing extended access to statement copies and other documentation relevant to the member was an influential factor when deciding to integrate with eDOC's products.

"eDOC's entire DocLogic suite fits together well – each solutions building on the other. It makes sense to use them all in our strategy and we look forward to creating an eDocument environment for our staff and members," remarks Cluckey.
