eDOC Hosts User Group Meeting

MIDDLEBURY, VT and MIDWAY, UT – November 8th, 2010

Credit union peers of eDOC Innovations recently held their second User Group meeting in Middlebury, VT. Themed “Vital Pieces in Your e-Document Strategy,” this meeting was attended by eDOC users from South Dakota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Maine and Massachusetts, as well as some of the CUSO’s cuasterisk.com network affiliates, CU*South, CU*Answers and Corporate One FCU.

The users in attendance discussed topics ranging from best practices for managing their e-document strategies and their Check 21 solutions to the future of the corporate network and collaboration opportunities with eDOC and the cuasterisk.com network affiliates.

“In the changing credit union industry collaboration has become a vital piece in the success of each credit union. As a CUSO, we operate on the philosophy that collaboration among credit unions and their peers brings innovation, fosters lasting partnerships and synergy for the future,” states Bret Weekes, President/CEO of eDOC Innovations. “We are pleased with the participation of our users and their enthusiasm to tap into the collective power of our CUSO. They are active voices in the development and direction of our firm, and influence the cuasterisk.com network and ultimately the credit union industry as a result. We look forward to further meetings like this one,” concludes Weekes.
