Directions CU Chooses CheckLogic Lite™ for RDC

MIDDLEBURY, VT and MIDWAY, UT – December 15th, 2010

$536M, Ohio-based, Directions Credit Union has chosen CheckLogic Lite™ as its remote deposit capture (RDC) program for small business members. Provided by eDOC Innovations, CheckLogic Lite™ allows organizations to perform deposit transactions from their place of business, rather than visiting the credit union to perform this transaction.

Kathy R. Martin, SVP Development & Support for Directions Credit Union comments: "We looked at several vendors offering remote deposit capture services for merchants. We found the eDOC product was flexible enough to fit the needs of our largest and smallest business members. It is cost-effective from both an implementation and ongoing basis. CheckLogic Lite™ provides the needed functionality for this type of solution yet provides a clear settlement process and is simple enough for the end user."
